Bradford College Student Base: promoting student wellbeing

Morning Session

Time: 9.30 – 11.30am

Venue: Bradford College, David Hockney Building, Great Horton Road, Bradford, BD7 1AY

Presenter: Nick Koral/Mohammed Azeem

Aimed at: Education Sector, Youth Service, Child and Adult Social Care

Details: Bradford College's Student Base. Promoting student wellbeing: embedding a youth work methodology. Sharing practice and opportunity for discussion.

Wellbeing is crucial to every student's academic outcome and experience of College life, yet we know that an increasing number of students will present with poor wellbeing at some point in their learning journey. However, as a result of the substantial reductions in College funding in the previous five years, most Colleges have had to make increasing reductions in non-teaching support services.

Bradford College has challenged this increasing pressure by investing in a service that provides a participative early intervention approach to supporting students. Come along to this session to find out more.

Linked Event Safeguarding Bingo

- Time: Week Commencing Monday 9th October 2017
Various dates and times available across the week. Contact us to check availability.
- Venue: We are available to come to your site; it is the responsibility of the organisations/services who request us to visit their site to ensure that they book a suitable venue/room and provide support staff for individuals who will need this.
- Presenter: Various presenters, names to be confirmed once booking has been confirmed.
- Aimed at: People who use services, support providers (volunteers and staff) who work with adults at risk, carers and members of the public. The session is suitable for various client groups.
- Details: This is an interactive session to raise awareness of different types of abuse and the ways in which it can be reported. The subject of safeguarding is very serious but we want to use this opportunity to make sure everyone understands what we mean by abuse and how we can get help for ourselves and others. We think that one of the best ways to help people understand these issues is to talk about it in a fun and interactive way. Prizes will be given to the winners, which will be provided by the organisers. Each session can accommodate up to 15 players. Individuals could be supported by a support worker or carer to play and participate. The session should take about 1 to 2 hours depending on the number of players.
- To book: Katie Wrigglesworth, Bradford People First.
